

ATTENTION KODIAK SEASON TICKET HOLDERS! The RBC Cup is coming to Camrose!

From May 1st through the 8th, 2011 the Camrose Sport Development Society and the City of Camrose will play host to the 41st National Junior A Championship.

Since 1971, teams from across Canada have fought for Hockey Canada's National Junior A Championship. More than 140 teams from 11 leagues – from Port Alberni, BC to Woodstock, NB – will play for the right to take to the ice at the 2011 RBC Cup.

One of the exciting aspects of hosting the National Jr A Championship is that our own Camrose Kodiaks will have an automatic berth as the host team in the 2011 RBC Cup. With that in mind, you can be assured that Coach Rybalka and the rest of the Kodiak staff are working extra hard to build an exciting hockey team that will bring another Championship to our loyal Kodiak fans and the City of Camrose.

Our valued Kodiak season ticket holders are being offered the first opportunity to purchase tournament passes for this exciting event!

As a season ticket holder you will be able to purchase an RBC Cup 13 game tournament pass for your own seat, as well as an additional 2 passes per season ticket held.

These passes are available at the special reduced price of $150.00 from now until Monday January 4th at 4pm.

Don't delay! Take advantage of being a Kodiak Season Ticket holder to get the best seats in the house at a preferred price. You'll want to be where the action is to cheer on our Kodiaks at the 2011 RBC Cup National Jr. A Championship.

Tournament passes will be available to the general public starting January 5, 2010 at the regular price of $199.00+GST.

Call the Kodiak office at 780 679 2603 to order your tickets today!
